HOW TO PLAY

Two Truths, One Lie, is a fun game that gives your team the chance to get to know interesting things about their colleagues. The game encourages your employees to bolster their public speaking skills in a laid-back environment.

(expected to take up to 10 minutes at max)

1. The students will write on paper two truths and a lie
2. The students will exchange the papers
3. The goal will be guessing which of the three statements is the lie

Materials

1. Timer
2. Two pens
3. Two pieces of paper

Examples

1. Student 1 and 2 come up with 2 truths about them and a lie.
2. Student 1 takes a guess at what student 2 lie is
  1. if they are right they win the game and it is student 2 turn to try to guess student 1 lie is
  2. If they are wrong it's student 2 turn to take a guess at student 1 lie
3. The students go back and forth at guessing until both lies are guessed.
